Shri Prashant Mishra, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Manindra Shrivastava, Standing counsel for the Guru Ghasidas University, Bilaspur, is present in Court, asked to take notice.

Heard.

The grievance of the writ petitioner is to the inaction on the part of the respondent- University and its functionaries in not taking any decision on its application for exempting the institution from holding the election of the students' union. The Court's attention is invited to paragraph 5.8 of the petition wherein it has been averred that representations had been submitted to the University along with reminder on 17-8-2001 & 30-8-2001, copies whereof is Annexure P-2 & P-3 to the writ petition but neither those representations have been considered nor the representation dated 09-04-2002. Accordingly, the main prayer is for a direction to the University and its functionaries to take an appropriate decision on the petitioner's application - representations for exempting the institution from holding the election of students' union.

In view of the limited grievance and the prayer made by the petitioner, the Court is of the opinion that no useful purpose would be served in keeping the writ petition pending, as it can be disposed of at the admission stage by directing the respondent-University to take appropriate decision on the representations of the petitioner or reference which was made by the petitioner for exempting it from holding election of students' union. It is made clear that the Court is not expressing any opinion on the merits of the petitioner contention and this order is not to be construed as direction to take a decision thereon. A decision has to be taken on its own merits and in accordance with the regulation governing the field considering that the elections are to be held in the month of September 2002. Ordered accordingly.

Consequently, M.W.P.No.622/2002 & I.A.No.4781/2002, stand disposed of.

In view of the above, writ petition stands disposed of.
